

The Spa and Salon

Sparkle in the City!

The Spa and Salon at Edinburgh's Telford College offers luxurious pampering treatments for lucrative prices

Edinburgh's Telford College was designed to offer more than just the best educational facilities for students, but also welcomes the public to experience and benefit from learning in action.

The College's own commercial beauty spa and hair salon teaches the art of hair and beauty at many levels. As a commercial beauty establishment they offer clients the opportunity try a wide array of treatments at extremely affordable prices.

Beauty Lecturer at the College, Nicola Paterson said: "The Spa and Salon at the College are run just like normal commercial beauty spas and hair salons and gives our students the opportunity to gain vital hands-on professional experience, in addition to their top-class beauty therapy and hairdressing training. We offer clients the usual beauty treatments – from manicures, waxing to fake-tanning – as well as the most up-to-date treatments, including a new, non surgical face-lifting clinic."

Manicure treatment from the Spa costs as little as £8, with a Fake Bake or St Tropez tanning session costing from £12.50 and a cut and colour from the Salon costs from £25 – both the Spa and the Salon also offer cheaper rates by loyalty schemes and depending on what time of the day you visit. Nicola explains: "It is great for us to be able to offer the Edinburgh community such discounted rates in the latest beauty therapy treatments, while also rewarding for our students to establish professionalism within their chosen profession. I'd encourage anyone who wants top-class pampering treatments to visit our website to check out our extensive list of treatments on offer at incredibly flawless prices".

Commercial Launch Night

To demonstrate the wonderful beauty treatments on offer, the Spa will be launching its largest ever Beauty Commercial Launch Night at the College from 5pm to 7.30pm on the evening of Tuesday 26 October 2010.

On the evening, clients will be offered the opportunity to have a mini-treatment – such as a Mayala manicure, Fake Bake or St Tropez fake-tanning, as well as free skin analysis and expert product advice from the Mary Cohr skin range.

Nicola explains: "This will be the largest beauty launch evening we've ever done before and we hope people will join us for what will be an evening of pampering, fun and beauty tips. Not only will we have tasters of the latest treatments, but there will also be refreshments, homemade canapés, raffles, testers, tips, advice, special offers and discounted products on the night. We hope it will be a huge success and an opportunity for us to show the city the beautiful, affordable work we do."

Tickets for the Commercial Launch Night are available from the Beauty Therapy Reception Desk for £5 per person.
